NA (PRO) SP 63/81/34

Copy of the Mayor of Cork to Grey, 18 March 1580/1

Endorsements

Copie of a lettre from the Maiour of Corke

xviijo Martij

A spanishe vessell with .50. Spaniards in it lately about Kinsall borded a fisher man & tooke owt of him twoe of the skil= fullest mariners to serue for pilots: and this done departed.

Text

Right Honorable and my very good Lord my humble and moste bounden dutye remembred, yt may please the same to be aduertised that suche ys the occasion of my wrytinge vnto your Lordship at this Presente that ther ys intelligence Coom from Kynsall that the xvjth of theis presentes A Spanishe Vessell sailinge aboute 5 the heade of Kinsale conteyninge the number of fyfty men or theraboutes have mette with A Boate fyshinge from that Towne which the Spaniardes boarded, and of the beste Pylotes therin haue taken aborde their saide vesselle toe, and discharged the saide fysher boate; which sayde Spanishe 10 vessell imediatly departed with the saide toe men of Kynsale beinge good Mariners and where or which waye they wente yt ys vnknowen, and what their intention was or ys I leaue that to your ••••* Lordship to consider thynkinge yt ys for no good purpose And so bycause I thoughte yt my dutye to Certefye your 15 Lordship therof I have written thus muche. humbly takinge my leave, wishinge your honour prosperous successe in all your Lordships proceedinges From Corke the xviijth of Marche: 1580:

Your Lordships moste humbly to Comande

Christofer Walter, Maior. 20

Copia Vera Edmund Spenser

Note on hands

The text of this copied letter (including subscription and signature) is in a secretary hand, not Spenser's. Spenser has certified the letter and added his autograph signature at the foot of the page, and is responsible for the original endorsement (including the date), in his characteristic mixed hand, on the verso. The later endorsement, added in London, is in a regular, somewhat cramped, italic.

* 14 ••••] 'Hono^w' deleted.